ENEE 488/499/499L – APPLICATION FORM

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Complete application instructions and deliverables as well as an overview of the goals and benefits of participation and completion of ENEE 488/499/499L can be found on the ECE Department website. This form must be hand-signed by the student and supervisor before electronically submitted. Submit all required materials to the ECE Undergraduate Office electronically to eceadvise@umd.edu as PDF and/or Word documents as early as possible. The deadline for seniors applying in their graduating semester is the first day of classes, for all other students it is the fifth day of classes for the semester you intend to register for ENEE 488/499/499L.

COURSE INFORMATION

Course: _____   Semester: _____   Year: _____   Credits: _____

STUDENT INFORMATION

Student Name: _____   Student UID: _____

Email: _____   Phone: _____

Previous ENEE 499 credit? ☐ Yes ☐ No   If yes, semester and year of project: _____ _____

Are you graduating in the semester you intend to register for this course? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Are you participating in ENEE499/L to complete the ECE Honors Program requirements? ☐ Yes ☐ No
  If yes, you must submit your Thesis to eceadvise@umd.edu and CC lawson@umd.edu one week prior to the last day of classes.
  Oral Presentations must be scheduled by emailing lawson@umd.edu by the last day of classes for this semester.

Student Signature: _____   Date: _____

SUPERVISOR INFORMATION

Does this satisfy the Advanced Lab Requirement? Supervisor, please INITIAL in box ☐Yes ☐No

Is the student being paid for participation in this research? Supervisor, please INITIAL in box ☐Yes ☐No

Supervisor Name: _____   ECE Faculty? ☐ Yes ☐ No

Supervisor Signature: _____   Date: _____

Additional Information (required only if supervisor is not ECE Department Faculty):

Employer: _____   Job Title: _____

Email: _____   Phone: _____

NOTE: Supervisor's curriculum vitae must be included with application if s/he is not ECE Department Faculty